COAL MINERS TO STRIKE.

Operators Given a Week for Decision.

Civic Federation Asked to Take a Hand.

Operators Accused of Failure to Keep Faith With the Men.

SHAMOKIN (Pa.) March 24.—The resolution presented at today's session of the United Mine Workers of America, by the special committee appointed Saturday, made a provisional strike declaration, and was unanimously adopted.

After its adoption, President Mitchell made this statement: "Our convention today unanimously adopted the recommendations submitted by a special committee composed of the district presidents and vice-presidents and myself."

The resolution recites the efforts made by the representatives of the anthracite mine workers to secure a joint conference, call attention to the repeated violations of the promises of operators conveyed in their notices posted last week, as well as their failure to carry out the representations reached with the representatives of the coal-carrying railroads last March.

The resolution also calls attention to the wage scale which was drafted, and unanimously adopted by the convention, the essential features of which are:

A shorter working day; minimum wage scale; uniform increase of wages, and the weighing of coal wherever the physical conditions of mining would permit.

It further explains that upon investigation, it is found that the average annual earnings of the anthracite miners are considerably less than in any other important American industry, while the number of fatalities and injuries in proportion to the number of miners employed, is greater than any other industry.

The resolution then declares that the mine workers can with honor to themselves and to justice those dependent upon them, continue at work during the coming year under the present low wages, and indefinite continuation of the strike, will call for a general suspension of work, to take effect upon a date to be designated by the executive boards of districts.

It further provides, however, that before resorting to such drastic measures, and with a lingering hope for a peaceful solution, a special committee will be formed to make a formal written appeal will be made to the Executive Committee of the National Civic Federation. If the Civic Federation refuses to act, or should fail in its efforts to arrange a satisfactory adjustment, prior to April 1, and, if after that date, negotiations are still pending, the miners will go to work except those necessary to keep the mines in repair, shall remain away from the mines, stripplings, washers and breaker yards, Thursday and Saturday days of each week. Should a strike take place, no settlement will be made in any separate district, and will be based on the entire area officially declared ended by a committee representing the three anthracite districts.

The committee to negotiate with the Civic Federation has not yet been appointed.

Commenting on the action of the convention, President Mitchell said: "I am free to confess a strike is imminent."

COMPROMISE RESOLUTION.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Surgeon General Sternberg has received official advice from Manila confirming the reports of the existence of Asiatic cholera in the Philippines, but does not regard the situation as serious.

The report of Gen. Shaffer to the commandant of the remaining battalion of the Third Infantry from Manila, on the transport Grant a week ahead of schedule, came in a precipitate measure against the possible spread of the cholera to troops returning to the United States, is approved by the War Department.

WATERS CRAPPACHEL.

FOR USE ON INSURGENTS.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

MANILA, March 24.—(By Manila Cable) Lieut.-Col. Frank D. Baldwin of the Fourth Infantry, who has been operating against the Filipinos in Cavite province, has, on account of the severe places of abiding in the provinces, in a request for a reinforcement, asked for the supply of shrapnel shells for use against the insurgents.

He received several replies, one of which was from President Baer of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, and all of which refused to meet the representatives of the insurgents.

The text of the replies were not made public.

The resolution was as follows: "By direction of the miners' convention, I wire to ascertain if your company will join other anthracite coal companies in convention with the anthracite mine workers for the purpose of discussing and adjusting grievances which affect all companies and all employees alike. Please answer."

The resolution presented today, according to President Mitchell, it was adopted without a dissenting vote. The resolution provides for the appointment of a committee to confer with the district executive boards, who will carry the mine workers' demands to the Conciliation Committee of the Civic Federation with an appeal to that organization.

The district executive boards met to night to select the fourteen delegates who, under the provisions of the resolutions, are to comprise the committee to negotiate with the Civic Federation. President Mitchell said the members had not been named, but the men fitted for the mission by their knowledge of the situation in the anthracite coal region were chosen.

The district executive boards met to night to select the fourteen delegates who, under the provisions of the resolutions, are to comprise the committee to negotiate with the Civic Federation. President Mitchell said the members had not been named, but the men fitted for the mission by their knowledge of the situation in the anthracite coal region were chosen.

During the day President Mitchell was in communication by telephone with Gen. Harry Krueger, the commander-in-chief of the district executive boards, who will be authorized by the convention to declare a strike.

The object of the convention is suspending work at the mines three days in each week of April. If negotiations are not being carried on to prevent the strike, the coal can be supplied by producing an amount sufficient out to supply the existing needs of the market.

President Mitchell said tonight that there had been a misapprehension concerning the sentiment of the convention. All the delegates favored conservation, he said, but they were unanimous in their demands for an adjustment.

Should a strike occur as a result of today's declaration over 144,000 mine workers would be rendered idle. Of this number nearly 120,000 are on the membership rolls of the union, the duties of the remainder being of a character which renders them ineligible to membership.

WILL MEET WEDNESDAY.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Notice was given out tonight by Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the National Civic Federation, that the Conciliation Committee of the Federation would hold a special session Wednesday morning at Federation headquarters to consider the threatened miners' strike.

MINERS' CONVENTION.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

PUEBLO (Colo.) March 24.—Labor Law was filed today in the court of the commissioners of the fifteenth district of the United Mine Workers, embracing Colorado, New Mexico and Utah. President Priske was in the chair with John Simpson, secretary.

Delegates from all portions of the district presented credentials, and were appointed.

Very favorable reports were given by the delegates from Northern Colorado, but those from the Las Animas and Huerfano coal fields had various complaints, including lack of enforcement of mining laws, poor ventilation, scrip system, importation of foreigners and imperfect organization. These miners will all be examined by committees.

Address on union-labor topics were made by Lieut.-Gov. Harvey E. Garman and Max Dewey, president and secretary of the State Federation of Labor; J. T. Smith, State Labor Commissioner, and Hector Charlionghe of the United Italian Societies.

The delegates represent 3000 workmen.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The Senate Committee on the Philippines has adopted So Far as it Relates to Lode Claims—Limitation on Placer Claims and Other Regulations.

British-American System is Adopted So Far as it Relates to Lode Claims—Limitation on Placer Claims and Other Regulations.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The Senate Committee on the Philippines today accepted the report of the subcommittee on mineral lands in the Philippines Islands, and prescribing the conditions of mining in those islands, and therefore most thoroughly conversant with the situation, recognized the position of the Transvaal government as desirous of peace, but there is nothing to show that they have any authority to impose submission on the country.

The most hopeful sign they see is the announcement that Lord Kitchener permitted Schalkburger and his companions to proceed to the Orange River.

The most important thing is the attitude of the British government.

Lord Kitchener, with the consent of the government, has acceded to the request of the Boers to withdraw the British forces from the Transvaal.

There is little disposition in London to regard the news of the Boer government's visit to Pretoria any too hopefully. Official circles express the doubts held throughout, of the ability and worthiness of the Boers to rule.

The House of Commons, however, has voted a sum for an equal sum for people who are out of work.

President Louhet is paid well enough.

This remark evoked loud protests.

M. Bouvri's request for an immediate discussion of his motion was rejected by 241 to 156 votes.

THE HAGUE, March 24.—(By Atlantic Cable) Regarding the fears expressed in the press to the effect that the Boer generals would not be inclined to recognize the authority of the civil government of the South African republics in case the latter decided to open peace negotiations, well-informed persons here declare that such apprehension is unfounded. They point out that the Boers have been in a position to do so ever since the war began, and that they have always worked in perfect harmony, and that the government could not have been compelled to open peace negotiations, well-informed persons here declare that such apprehension is unfounded. No More Revivals at Soldiers' Home.

Privileges Abused and Isms Too Many.

Gov. LaGrange Issues Orders Abolishing All but the Regular Worship.

There will be no more religious services in the gospel church at the Soldiers' Home after this week.

The board of officers of the Home met yesterday morning, and decided that the revival business among the old soldiers is overdone, and the privilege of holding services in the Home buildings abused. In accordance with this decision, the board has issued mitigated orders restricting the use of the Assembly Hall and Memorial Hall at the Home, after the beginning of next month, to the uses prescribed by the national board of managers.

This does not mean that the members of the Home will be deprived of spiritual consolation in the right to worship. It simply means that no more indiscriminate permits will be given for the holding of religious and semi-religious meetings in the Home buildings during week days, to the exclusion of others uses for which those buildings are intended. Regular Sunday school services, Protestant and Catholic, will be held hereafter, as has been the custom since the Home was founded. There will be no restrictions affecting the other uses of the buildings of the Home, but itinerant revivalists of whatever creed or form, will be prevented from monopolizing Assembly Hall and Memorial Hall during weekdays.

Gov. LaGrange said last night, in explanation of his new order:

"I trust you may know the Home management in this matter will not be misunderstood. It is not our purpose to shut out any particular sect, society or evangelistic movement. We do not oppose religion or anything calculated to do the veterans good. But the requests for the use of our buildings for all kinds of religious harangue have been so frequent and insistent as to be a positive nuisance. The members of the Home, military and civilian, and Grand Army, are entitled to the use of the Assembly Hall and Memorial Hall, every week day, but so many meetings of a religious or semi-religious nature have been held in them, that the organizations for whom the buildings have been erected, have crowded out of them almost entirely."

At first we had the use of buildings to an occasional evangelist, lecturer or revivalist, willingly; but after we once opened the door to the Methodists, Baptists and other denominations, applications increased so as to include nearly every conceivable sect, fad or ism.

All this was due to the good has been done by many of these meetings, but some evil has also resulted from too much of this good thing. When day meetings were discontinued, the use of the Home have been deprived of the use of their Assembly Hall for other purposes. When meetings are held at night, in the same church, after George from, alleged to be leader of a gang of western postoffice robbers, by Inspector D. W. Peter, of the Kansas City police, of postoffice robbery, the chief trailor of man from the Mississippi to the Pacific Coast, covering more than 5500 miles in the pursuit, and devoting his life to the capture of the man, Peters captured him, and brought him back to Kansas, where he was wanted on the specific charge of robbing the postoffice at Salina, February 13, 1901.

LONG CHASE AFTER CRIMINAL.

WICHITA (Kan.) March 24.—One of the most remarkable illustrations of the relentlessness with which the United States government pursues the man who violates its laws, and has sold out, was born this winter at San Diego, and on his way home making our city a short visit. Daily refreshments were served, and the young man was entertained and awarded, the highest score being held by Mrs. R. Shewalter. The draw prize was $100. The winner was Mr. Hartley the gentleman's. The competition was won by Winnie Swarts and H. A. Hopkins, on "What the Baptists Believe." The question asked was: "Is it essential to salvation that is not common to every evangelical denomination?" said Mr. Pierce.

The entire evangelical church, declared Mr. Pierce, "is slowly but surely moving toward a position on fundamental questions."

Rev. Will A. Knighton, in rising to offer a vote of thanks to the speaker, did not believe that Mr. Pierce had sold out, or would be a Baptist, but that he wished to make a motion in the same language he had used in favoring Bishop Montgomery some weeks ago, and for which he was denounced by some people as an traitor to the public schools, and yet did not pretend to endorse what Bishop Montgomery had done. He then made his motion in the following language, which was adopted:

"Resolved, that we thank the speaker for his excellent paper on the contested question, he concluded, and that he be invited to come again."

Francis Murphy, the gospel temperance and social worker in the audience, was called to the platform, and he agreed to do the unexpected. The front seats vacant, so what did the general Murphy do, but lambast the preachers for setting a bad example to the youth of the country.

Murphy made a fervid talk, upon the duty of the ministry in connection with the gospel temperance movement, and to have been right up here in front to speak to the young people. No man can preach with a lot of simple pews in front of him. You may think you can, but you can't; that's what's the matter.

Some of the preachers who have been granted these privileges have even violated the rules of the Home by passing the counterfeits.

The old soldiers shall be charged for any entertainments provided for them in the Soldiers' Home.

In some cases it has seemed that the contractors have been on benefitting themselves financially than the veterans.

Some of the contractors who have been granted these privileges have even violated the rules of the Home by passing the counterfeits.

The time came at last when we had to meet somewhere. We could not discriminate between Methodists, Presbyterians, Catholics, Mormons, Spiritualists, etc., and in order to please all, the Methodists, Baptists and other denominations, applications increased so as to include nearly every conceivable sect, fad or ism.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

A OTHER LOCAL OIL COMBINATION PROPOSED.

TALK OF CONSOLIDATION IN OTHER FIELDS.

Reported Oil Strike at Lancaster not True—May Locations Made East of Antelope Valley—More Tank Cars Needed—Market Quotations.

It is rumored in local oil circles that another strike will be made in the near future to form a combination of producers in the hope of getting the condition of the market and finding an outlet for the surplus oil of this field. The movement, it is understood, is backed by several large producers that did not sign up with the Oil Storage Company, and the oil companies organization invited well known men to meet their oil through that organization. The outsiders believe that they can form a combine that will protect the market.

With the increasing production of oil in the Fullerton field it is feared that there will be a surplus that will have to be worked off and that will prove to be rather a disagreeable experience. In this case there is talk of a combine, and Kern River operators are now considering a new scheme to join forces. The plan is to form a project, regardless of the various interests.

NO STRIKE AT LANCASTER.

Oil has not been found in the present field near Lancaster, but operators in that section are still hopeful, and drilling continues. The report circulated last week is to the effect that a pool of oil has been found in the valley. Many have faith in the Lancaster field, and are watching the outcome of present attempts with interest.

Some miles east of Antelope Valley hundreds more locations have been made in the mountainous country near Rock Creek. Some very favorable indications have been found, including a coal seam that is about one-half mile thick, and shows signs of first-class copper.

SAN FRANCISCO MINING STOCKS.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

SAN FRANCISCO. March 24.—The official closing quotations for mining stocks today were:

put of the northern oil fields. The growth of the demand for these fuel has more than kept pace with the number of tank cars added to the service, and the result is that there is still a big shortage. The company has also added another with a new factory for 500 new 12,000-gallon oil-tank cars. The cars are generally for the traffic on the Coast.

Oil is becoming livelier in the local field than for some time past. Local jobbers in several instances have been compelled to add new wagons.

DE WINDT'S JOURNEY.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, March 24.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Letters received here from Harry De Windt, leader of the expedition, who is attempting to make its way overland from Far East, New York, and which left the former city December 19, 1901, announced Yakutsk, Siberia, February 16, announced his intention to depart on the following day for Sredne-Kolymsk, East Siberia. De Windt had then covered 1,500 miles of land journey since he left the railroad, through blinding blizzards and with the thermometer at from 25 to 50 deg. below zero, and was still 1,000 miles from his destination. Father Dowling's house at Garyown, where he will see no one, and the report is given out that he is ill.

MARY SMYTHE'S RETURN.

Last evening Miss Smythe returned to her home at Elk Point, alleging that she had come from Chicago, although it had been reported that Father Kelly had left her in a convent in St. Louis. On the train en route home Miss Smythe said she had been ill.

"What terrible stories they have been telling! If I had known them I would have come back long ago! I have been in Chicago all the time, and have the receipts for my board bill! I have never been ill in California!"

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.J.

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.). March 24.—The tenth annual Arkansas Derby was run over a slow track. It rained for twenty-four hours prior to the race.

The two turnouts in the crowd, a son and daughter from New Orleans, were an outsider in the betting. George Bennett's colt Herodade, who went to the post a strong favorite at 4 to 5, led for a half mile and then went all to pieces. He was going in the stretch and finished absolutely last. The field got off well bunches, but there was no sign of crowding on the first turn. Colburn, on Herodade, cut across the field and took the lead. The result might have been different. Prowl was well ridden. He was nicely played during the earlier part of the race and came with a will. The result was not to be denied. Prowl made his run from the eighth pole. Results: First, Five, and a half furlongs, selling: Harry Wilson, second; The Bronze Demon, third; time 1:17.

Arkansas Derby added, one mile;

Florence won, Flores added, one mile;

Huntress third; time 1:45.

Purse, seven furlongs: Nearest won,

Y. C. Taper, second; Brigade, third; time 1:31.

Selling, mile and seventy yards: El

Caney won, Algie M. second, Chickadee third; time 1:56.

BUSINESS.

Clearances sent by the Los Angeles banks yesterday amounted to $1,048,857.50. The unusual activity is due in the main to the closing of some real estate deals. For the corresponding day last year the amount was $755,690.

Prices started higher on New York Change yesterday, but did not hold out during the day. Trade in wheat at Chicago was heavy and the market nervous. Money Firm.

THE ARMY CONTROVERSY.

From every point of view, the controversy which has been precipitated by the testimony of Gen. Miles before the Senate Committee on Military Affairs is extremely unfortunate. If a decided check be not put upon it, its consequences, in both a military and a political sense, are likely to be far-reaching and mischievous beyond present calculation.

One phase of the difficulty which cannot be too strongly deprecated is the evident desire, if not determination, in certain quarters, to drag the controversy into politics. Questions of this character have no proper place in politics, but they are often dragged into the political mire, nevertheless. The President has an unquestioned right, under the law, to retire Gen. Miles from active service at this time. If he chooses to exercise that prerogative, as Gen. Miles is past the age of 62 years. His retirement at 64 is compulsory, and at the most he has less than two years more of active service. But if the President should see fit to exercise his prerogative in this manner by retiring Gen. Miles, in all probability an attempt would be made to create a political issue, and to make Miles a candidate for President. Gen. Miles has long been suspected of entertainments of political ambition; and while he might not take an active part in the movement, there is little probability that he would oppose it. Political enemies of the administration will be quick to seize any and every possible advantage, and they could be relied upon to make the most of the situation.

The organization of a general staff on the plan proposed by the pending bill would lead to disregard for the authority of the commanding general of the army, and even to disregard, in a greater or less degree, for the authority of the President himself. The result would be a serious impairment of discipline, and demoralization throughout the service. Officers and men of the army could hardly fail to take sides in the controversy, if it should assume the large proportions which it is likely to assume if the reorganization bill should become a law and if Gen. Miles should carry out his expressed intention of retiring from the service.

So far as the nature of the pending reorganization bill has been revealed in the Washington dispatches, it appears to be an unwise and vicious measure, which ought either to be defeated or amended in such manner as to be unobjectionable. Congress will have an opportunity, when this measure comes up for passage, to put a quietus upon the controversy, and it is to be hoped that such action will be taken as will accomplish that much-desired result. A measure conceived and carried out on the right lines would undoubtedly be of much benefit to the military service, and would at the same time relieve the President from an unpleasant predicament.

Gen. Miles was called before the Senate Committee to give his opinion on certain provisions of the proposed law. It was both his right and his duty to speak freely on the subject, and he did so—although his threat that he should retire from the service if the bill became a law was uncalled for and unsoldierly. Gen. Miles has earned, and should be freely accorded, the right to express opinions on matters pertaining to the army. He is a brave soldier, of many campaigns and battles, and of long experience in the military service of his country. He rose, on merit, from a subordinate officer of volunteers to the position of commanding general of the United States Army. His body is covered with honorable wounds, received in this service. These facts should be remembered. Such action should be taken by Congress as will leave him no real grievance and no reasonable excuse for leaving the service.

UNSPORTINGLY "SPORT."

A bill has passed both branches of the Legislature of New York prohibiting the practice of shooting pigeons released from traps at shooting tournaments. In the enactment of this law the State of New York has done well. There are similar laws in some of the States, and every State should have such a law. True sportsmen object to this manner of killing birds chiefly because it is unsportsmanlike. It is not really more cruel, perhaps, than the shooting of wild birds in their native haunts. The element of cruelty necessarily enters into all "sports" of this kind. But the practice of trap shooting partakes rather of slaughter-house ethics than of sportsmanship. There is no element of danger nor of adventure—which elements are inseparable from true sport. An ordinary game of golf involves more hazard to the players than the trap shooting of pigeons to the shooters. And, besides, the birds are hardly more gamy than many barnyard fowls. If it is a mere matter of marksmanship, clay pigeons or glass balls are as good targets as live birds, and the killing of the latter in large numbers is hardly better than wanton slaughter.

Until the latent spirit of savagery shall have been wholly eradicated from the human breast, there will be persons who find "sport" in killing the weaker animals. But common decency, and a proper regard for the requirements of a certain chivalrous quality which is known and understood as sportsmanship, unite in demanding that when killing is to be done it shall be seldom as possible to far-reaching, and mischievous beyond present calculation.

When the President told this presumptuous railroad man that such men as he are almost entirely responsible for the spread of socialistic sentiment in this country, he merely told the naked truth. It is an obvious fact that we who believe in good government, and the maintenance of the sacred rights handed down to us by our fathers, cannot conscientiously, or reasonably, or fairly, continue to denounce and oppose the lawlessness which manifests itself in violent strikes and boycotts and other outrages of the kind, unless we at the same time take cognizance of and denounce and oppose the lawless actions and arrogant pretenses of wealthy corporations, who sometimes, apparently, consider themselves as being above the law of the land.

The railroads of the United States are semi-public enterprises, which have become almost as indispensable to the people at large as the food we eat and the water we drink. Consequently, it is eminently proper and fitting that the government should assume, to a certain reasonable extent, the position of guardian of the people's interests, for it is manifest that the people, left to themselves, would have about as much chance against this enormous aggregation of capital, banded together for a common purpose, as would the traditional iceberg in hades. The President's position in declaring that the law shall be enforced, regardless of consequences, may cost him the contributions of the big railroad companies in the next national campaign, should he become a candidate, but it will earn him the gratitude and respect of the great American people, who do the voting at the polls.

THE RAILROADS AND THE LAW.

A special dispatch from Washington published in The Times of Monday reported that the bill introduced by Senator Elkins "to enlarge the jurisdiction and powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission"—which bill, it is said, may be reported favorably by the Interstate Commerce Committee this week—contains a "joker" giving the railroads authority to make pooling arrangements. Said joker consists of a single sentence: "It shall be lawful for any two or more common carriers to arrange between and among themselves for the establishment and maintenance of rates." The next sentence grants permission for a division of earnings. "It shall also be lawful for such carriers to agree, by contract in writing, filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission upon a division of their tariff or earnings.

PRANKS OF WEATHER IN THE SOUTHLAND.

SUNSHINE, RAIN, SLEET, HAIL AND SNOW IN ONE DAY.

General Precipitation Sunday and Monday—Higher Mountain Ranges Glistening White, and Oranges and Strawberries Ripe and Blooming in the Valleys.

The rainstorm that made itself generally felt in Southern California Sunday has passed, leaving the mountains white and the atmosphere in the valleys clear. The total precipitation in Los Angeles was 47 of an inch, making over 102 inches for the season. Coming a little at a time at this season, this rain is twice as much, according to crop experts, as the usual heavier precipitation during the winter.

The rain storm that has just now come out of the ordinary has even fallen in some places. This is particularly true at Bakersfield, where a heavy precipitation of hail, sleet and rain occurred yesterday.

The rainfall there was nearly half an inch up to last evening, with indications of more during the night.

celebration. They were down the girl was in bright joyful mood of harm of a sort too shocking mentioned.

Two officers went to the office which made her escape from a window into the office.

The office was quiet yesterday, the associated banks of New York have expanded about 40% since January. Financial authorities are now disturbed by a extraordinary expansion. It is thought that it indicates largely that have been making advances in their operations, especially those railway organizations. But others themselves are not disturbed.

The beginning of the year looks like a period of the larger together has resulted in an increase of new credits and loans.

And the loan expansion is abnormal. The inference is that the increase in loans is due to commercial advances.

It is known that there are known to confine their purely to commercial business.

Mrs. Tappan herself showed her bullet holes in the wall of the house where she had shot a man.

Up to this time, the police never been able to get her to confess.

A few nights ago, they had that was worse than the first. She told the police that she had the face with a bullet hole, and has a broken wrist to the other amputated.

When the officers came to the door, she may be at fault, but was going to be ugly.

He is a husky specimen, weighs pounds or more.

He would be sent to jail, but a gun of his portions was thrust under his coat and was an efficient person.

He will have to begin his life all over again.

POLISH STUDENTS IN VIENNA, March 24.—The students here report a strike of 1,000 men, a revolution in character, at the University. For the first time in the history of the university, the conditions are rather favorable, but the students are still trying to Lynch the professors who escaped with their lives.
